

ENDNOTES

<sup>1</sup> In 2004 West Virginia became a state farmland participant. The Jefferson County FPB Bylaws require the use of the title “president” to be used; however in 2004 the title of “chairman” shall be reserved at the state level.

<sup>2</sup> The original phrases of “open space” and/or “open-space” have been replaced throughout this report using farmland, farmlands, land, and/or lands, respectfully.

<sup>3</sup> Addendum March 9, 2002 [June 4, 2003]: in effect.

See Index to Citations

<sup>4</sup> The drawn lines and the word “total” within section C. Soils has been removed from the Land Evaluation Criteria Form.

<sup>5</sup> The drawn lines and the word “total” within section F. Historical has been removed from the Land Evaluation Criteria Form.

<sup>6</sup> The following cap was removed, effective June 4, 2003.

The maximum rate allowable is $1.10 per $500 ($2.20 per $1,000) or fraction thereof of the real estate transfer value; to a maximum transfer value of $1 million.

See Index to Citations